The Patch Primary School
School Uniform Policy

The Patch Primary School has a compulsory uniform as set out below.

Guidelines

- The uniform should be comfortable, high quality and affordable.
- The uniform must be suitable for the activities undertaken at school.
- The uniform policy should not discriminate, either directly or indirectly against students on the basis of their gender, race, ethnic group religious beliefs or disability.
- The school uniform policy will be provided to all new families and published in the school newsletter at the beginning of each term.
- School Council will review the school uniform policy as the need arises.
- Uniform items will be sold through the school uniform shop.
